PRESIDENT: Senator Haberman, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR HABERMAN: Mr. President, I rise for a point of personal privilege.

PRESIDENT: State your point, please.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Mr. President, is Senator Hall here? Mr. President, three years ago we had this misty-eyed young, innocent pup come down here and fortunately he was seated beside me, but after three years I have decided that I am indeed honored to have such a gentleman, such an astute, intelligent person sitting next to me, and, therefore, I would like to make a presentation to Senator Tim Hall. Senator Hall, I would have the honor of presenting to you an Admiralship in the Great Navy
